There's no harm in going a little wild with the Cheetah by Smith Optics! Evolve frame is durable and flexible, perfect for a variety of activities. Adjustable wire-core temples with barrel hinges. Stylized Smith Optics metal logo hit on side temples. Polarized lens filters out 99.9% of visual static for increased depth perception, increased visual acuity, and maximum glare-free comfort. Available on the Tortoise and Black styles. Carbonic TLT (Tapered Lens Technology) corrects visual distortion by progressively tapering the lens from the optical center towards the outer edges. Hydrophilic Megol nose and temple pads for added comfort. Six-base lens curvature. A medium fit with large coverage. Imported. This product may have a manufacturer's warranty. Please visit the manufacturer's website or contact us at for full manufacturer warranty details.
