Stomp anything that comes your way on the mountain with the all-terrain Lib Tech® Attack Banana EC2 Wide snowboard - from powder, park, groomers, ice, pow, and beyond! EC2 BTX: Elliptical Camber/Banana Blend Quiver killing freestyle blend halfway between original Banana Tech and C2. Medium tip and tail pressure for end-to-end-stability and pop combined with a medium amount of pressure between your feet for unreal carving and float in pow. MTX: Magne-Traction® technology features seven points of focused edge control. Aspen/Columbian Gold Core features ultra light, strong, and long, lively fibers. Basalt/Fiberglass Combo features a strong and light Volcanic organic additive with free fiber reinforcements. Flex modulus is synchronized with Lib Tech's resin system for maximum strength and minimum weight. Damp, strong, and lively for a smooth poppy ride. Vectran tempered polymer fiber. Eco Sub/PBT Top is tough and eco-sublimated compatible. Birch Internal Sidewalls are placed along the sidewall of your board to add board control to Lib Tech's sandwich construction. UHMW Sintered Sidewalls are twice as sintered as any other sidewall. Tough, fast, hard, waterproof, handsome and light. Eco Sub TNT Base features a fast and low maintenance dual layered fluoro base material. Imported. Board size: 159 cm Wide

Contact Length: 119 cm

Side cut: 8.4 m
